Residence 209's prized corner floor plan features a master suite on one side of the living area and secondary bedrooms on the other.

This home enjoys two private terraces - one shared by the main living space and third bedroom, and one exclusively off the master bedroom.

A large foyer offers the chance to create a memorable entrance experience before stepping into the massive light-filled living space with open layout, raised ceilings, and a wall of windows looking onto the Brian R. Stebbins Memorial Park.
